

Calvin Tom joined our San Diego team in 2009 and brings his love for the water to the table. His background includes firefighter training and he has a passion for all things motor driven – motorcycles, dirt bikes, jet skis, etc.

As a matter of fact, his first spoken word as a baby was “wheel!”

Calvin teaches the infant and toddler 4-6 week survival series as well as our Sea Monkeys Mommy and Me classes, Stingrays toddler groups and Piranha Team stroke development classes.

His wit and gentle manner with children puts them at ease right away.

His intuitive grasp on how best to work with your child’s unique personality is immediately evident.

Come see how fast your child will excel with Calvin as his/her teacher!

You can contact Calvin at 858.837.4801

Certifications

- Trained in 2010 in Infant Aquatics
- Red Cross CPR and First Aid Certified
- Red Cross WSI (Water Safety Instructor) Certified
- Member of USSSA (United States Swim School Association)
- USSSA Infant and Toddler Certification
- Educational background in firefighter training and first responder rescue